

Moran Hires Trevor McKeeman of Chapman to Staff

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Congressman Jerry Moran today announced that Trevor McKeeman of Chapman has been hired to serve as a legislative assistant in Moran's Washington, D.C. office.

"Trevor is an important addition to our staff, and I am pleased to have him working for the people of the First District," Moran said. "Trevor has excelled in his academics and in his professional life, and it's good to have his experience and work ethic to serve Kansans."

McKeeman is a 1996 graduate of Chapman High School and a 2000 graduate from Kansas State University with a degree in Business Administration with a minor in Economics. While at KSU, McKeeman was a member of the Golden Key National Honor Society and the Alpha Kappa Psi Business Fraternity. He was also the President of Beta Theta Pi Fraternity.

McKeeman is also a licensed pilot, a licensed Kansas Real Estate Agent and on the Board of Directors of the Dickinson County Bank. Prior to coming to Congressman Moran's office, McKeeman worked for Accenture as a Business Process Analyst deployed to Communications and High Tech, based in Overland Park.

"I had the opportunity to work as an intern for the Congressman four years ago and I feel honored to work for him again," McKeeman said. "He is someone who truly cares about Kansans, and I will enjoy working for the people of the first district of Kansas."

As a legislative assistant, McKeeman will work on researching legislation for the people of the First District.

Trevor is the son Kevin and Lorine McKeeman of Chapman.
